

Lovely Must-See Townhouse in the Hub of Silicon Valley

2116 Windrose Place

As lovely on the inside as it is convenient on the outside: This home is a serene retreat located in the hub of Silicon Valley. Once the model unit for the development and recently remodeled, this townhouse features many luxury amenities usually found in much larger homes. Brand new stainless steel kitchen appliances, new bamboo hardwood flooring, and walls painted two soothing hues accented by crown molding and decorative wall trim highlight the downstairs. And not to be missed is the two car garage with additional large storage/work space and built-in shelves. Upstairs features three ample bedrooms including the Master Suite boasting an oversized Jacuzzi tub and separate steam shower. Also upstairs is a beautifully renovated second bathroom. Step outside the home and into the heart of Silicon Valley with quick access to downtown Mountain View, shopping, Shoreline entertainment/recreation, and corporate headquarters including Google. This home is a must-see gem.
