

217 Castillon Way, San Jose

Your guests will feel welcomed by the lovely living room just through a wide passeway off the entrance. Both the dining area and the family room are visible through the passageway giving the home an open spacious feeling.

The charming family room just off the dining area will surely be your family's favorite place to relax. A brick fireplace and sliding glass doors leading out to a covered patio create a casual comfortable ambiance.

The kitchen-dining area is place between the living room and family room.
