

The spacious living room / dining area has tile floors, a fireplace and two sliding doors opening to the front patio.

A breakfast bar adjacent to the dining area opens to the kitchen.

The flexible design of the home can adapt to your changing needs making it a great investment.

The two bedrooms are separated from each other so that privacy and freedom from excessive noise is achieved.

Each bedroom has an adjacent bath and sliding doors opening to the partially fenced backyard.

Great for a family or a single wanting a room mate.
