

The backyard rises to the top of a low ridge providing both privacy and the ambiance of a country estate.

This home offers both a formal dining room adjacent to the kitchen and a cheery breakfast area open to the kitchen.

The kitchen's center island has a breakfast bar.

The spacious master bedroom has a white vaulted open beam ceiling, a balcony, and views of the hillside in back of the house.

The master bath has white raised panel vanity with stone counter-top and dual porcelain sinks.

Both a stone tile shower and a deep tub are separate from the vanity.
