

The lovely living room receives wonderful lighting from the clerestory windows. A fireplace and picture window make it a relaxing enjoyable place.

The family room has a wall of glass with the top angled back providing a dramatic view. A storage bench at the base of the window makes it easy to keep things nearby but out of sight.

The dining room has a wonderful open feeling with views of all public areas.

The master suite features has a thick lush carpet, a sliding door leading out to a balcony, and a spacious vanity with an attractive smooth, easy to clean, synthetic top. A shower over tub with tile surround gives you efficient choices.

The second bedroom is of ample size, offering room for reading or a desk next to the window. The second bath is just across the hall.

A full size washer and dryer make laundry chores quick and convenient.
