

606 Chimalus Dr, Palo Alto

4BR/3BA | 2,147 sf | Built in 2000 | Walk to Shops

This beautiful newer house located on a peaceful cul-de-sac in the Barron Park neighborhood of Palo Alto and has a modern time-proven floor plan.

The well lit living room is located to your right as you enter the home. Large picturesque windows, a zig-zag staircase to the upper floor, a large passageway looking towards charming dining room, and a sunken floor give the room both intimacy and openness.

The low wall with tapered columns, coffered ceiling, and views out multiple windows create an intimate yet open formal dining room.

The Barron Park neighborhood with its more rural streets is a favorite neighborhood for those wanting a peaceful home rather than the constant energy of an urban environment. Best of all, it retains the convenience of walking to shops & restaurants.

Long lasting tile roof, covered front porch and simple to maintain landscaping.
