

The formal living room, with wood floor and tiled entry gives you a classic view of your front yard and of your neighborhood.

Just through the arched passageway is your great room with kitchen, dining, and family areas. The great room is likely to be your family's favorite place. With a sheltered patio just outside the great room, perfect for barbecuing or outside dining, all of your daytime needs are at hand. The room is well lit from northeast and northwest windows with minimal harsh sunlight. An inviting fireplace makes the room cozy on cold days.

All bedrooms are good sized with wood floors and good natural light.

The hallway bath has two sinks, a shower over tub and a tile floor. The master bath has a large walk-in shower with sliding glass doors.

The fenced backyard provides plentiful opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. A large stamped concrete patio provides plenty of space for parties. A attractive well built gazebo provides shelter from the sun in addition to the shade from the house. A window in the garden shed gives you a work area.
