

This two-level 6 bed/3 bath home gives many options for larger families or families wanting space at home for activities. The spacious lower level enables cozy family gatherings or entertaining larger groups. With all new appliances and quartz countertops, the kitchen is a joy to use. It is situated to give you a cheerful start to the day at the breakfast bar, an outdoor meal on the patio just out the sliding glass doors, or to have dinner in the adjacent dining room.

The top level has rooms for every family member, possible visiting relatives, or even various activities. The elegant master bathroom provides up to date charm. The balcony off the master suite allows for moments of serenity with a view of the sunsets over the front yard.
