

Welcome to this Spanish style home rightly named on the "Hill Top" with a beautiful, uninterrupted view of the Bay all year round. Greeting you right out of the gate is a private, enclosed patio great for hosting guests or just feeling the summer breeze for a morning coffee. The home has two wood-burning fireplaces to create an ambiance of warmth in the winter time. The shaded back deck allows for quiet afternoons and the amazing hummingbird population that favors this Spanish style property. The home is also well outside the fog line and provides warmth to it that other areas do not provide. This property is quiet however still walking distance to downtown San Carlos and great restaurants.
