

1483 Stone Creek Dr, San Jose 95132

This delightful home gives you many choices of where you want to be. Perhaps you want to have your living room as a peaceful location for reading and watching movies, while your family room is set aside for games and louder activities. For even more boisterous activities you have a large front lawn or a covered patio.

With four bedrooms you will probably be able to have a quiet room for each member of your family. With the dining room open to both the kitchen and the family room, having time together will be natural.
